

As the premier professional organization in Pennsylvania with over 600 members working in government finance, GFOA-PA is committed to providing networking opportunities, mentoring, quality and timely education, regional events, and other resources.

MEMBERSHIP BENEFITS

Enhance your Professional Network

- Offer support, and be supported, in reaching professional goals
- Learn how your colleagues are implementing current best practices
- Connect with others who share your professional passion
- Increase your exposure through your listing in GFOA-PA online directory

Build Your Career

- Members receive timely targeted job postings in government finance across PA
- Find / be a mentor
- Volunteer opportunities through GFOA-PA's standing committees are a great resume builder
- Communicate and find answers quickly from colleagues through the Forum, an online Q&A member only system

Maintain Your Edge

- Earn CPE credits
- Save through reduced rates to attend the GFOA-PA Annual Conference and other events
- Take advantage of the GFOA-PA online Forum, Roundtable discussions, and educational webinars – usually free-of-charge for GFOA-PA members
- Access to the online knowledge center offering sample policies and RFP's

Grow Your Professional Development

- Automatic membership in the GFOA-PA Region of your employment which offers more intimate networking opportunities and education
- Subscription to The Ledger, the GFOA-PA newsletter offering the latest news and updates for members
- Leadership Development through service on the Board of Directors, Regional Boards, as State Delegates to the Board from all three regions, and through committee participation

MEMBERSHIP LEVELS

Associate Member Annual Dues: $120

Any individual who is interested in the principles and practices of government finance and is not eligible for the Government Member level.

Government Member Annual Dues: $75

Any public official or employee who is elected or employed by a local government unit, school district, or agency in a position related to finance, accounting, auditing, budgeting, treasury, data processing, pension, or other fiscal capacity.

Academic Member Annual Dues: $25

Full-time faculty member who provides course instruction in finance or public administration at accredited institutions of higher learning.

Retired Member Annual Dues: $25

Any person retired from a position that qualified for government membership, (and not employed in a field that qualifies for associate membership).

Student Member Annual Dues: FREE

Any student enrolled in an institution of higher learning and not yet gainfully employed.

Want to know more?

If you have questions about membership, contact Barbara@gfoapa.org or Jennifer@gfoapa.org, or visit our website at www.gfoapa.org to join today!